

Innovation and Entrepreneurship: Distinctive to the Priority and Thrust of TINT

Techno International New Town (TINT) excels in fostering innovation and entrepreneurship, producing 22 successful entrepreneurs in the last five years. Through its Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) and Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), TINT offers mentorship, strategic guidance, and workshops. Its Incubation and Pre-Incubation Cells support startup development, while the IPR Cell aids in transforming ideas into market-ready products, demonstrating TINT's commitment to economic and social progress.

Successful Alumni Entrepreneurs

In the last five years, 22 TINT graduates have become successful entrepreneurs, choosing to commercialize their innovative ideas over lucrative corporate jobs. They have created significant employment opportunities, highlighting TINT's role in fostering entrepreneurship through mentorship, strategic guidance, and practical startup support.
